

Keynote incl. Free Communication

How far can oncoplastic breast surgery go

Thursday, 3 Sep 2026, 9 a.m. - 10:30 a.m., Cube 1

Chair: Jaroslaw Krupa, Walter Weber

Volume replacement or volume displacement after large tumorectomy or how far shall we go to avoid mastectomy?

Presentation time: 15 min

Speaker: Jaroslaw Krupa

What should be done when detecting enlarged parasternal lymph nodes during breast reconstruction?

Presentation time: 6 min

Speaker: Uwe von Fritschen

Chest Wall Perforator Flaps in Breast-Conserving Surgery: an Effective and Safe Tool to Reduce Mastectomy Rates. Updated results from the SCARABEO (SCARless Advanced Breast Extended Oncoplasty) Intern

Presentation time: 6 min

Abstract Presenter: M. Ferrucci (Veneto Institute of Oncology)

Immediate Versus Delayed Symmetrization in Breast Cancer Surgery - A Retrospective Study

Presentation time: 6 min

Abstract Presenter: J. Endlich (Geneva University Hospitals, University of Geneva)

Immediate Breast Reconstruction in Patients with Inflammatory Breast Cancer: A Systematic Review

Presentation time: 6 min

Abstract Presenter: C. Herman (Université de Montréal)

Frequency of BRCA 1/2 germline mutations in a cohort of Belarusian patients with triple-negative breast cancer

Presentation time: 3 min

Abstract Presenter: S. Saadudinava (N.N. Alexandrov Republican Scientific and Practical Center of Oncology and Medical Radiology)
